

Overhead Door Technician

Alberta
Trades,
World
Ready.

2015-February

Overhead Door Technician Training Fact Sheet

Overhead door technician (ODT) is now a designated occupation under Alberta's Apprenticeship and Industry Training Act. There are two levels of certification. Overhead door technicians install and maintain overhead sectional doors, rolling steel doors, multi-blade doors, rubber roll-up doors, rolling steel fire doors, electric door openers, electric gate openers, and access control devices in residential, commercial and industrial sites.

ODT Certification Level One - Based on Credentials

- Successful completion of Overhead Door Technician - Level One course as delivered by the Canadian Door Institute (CDI)
- Pass the required exam(s)
- Submission of Occupational Certificate - Credentials Application with $150.00 fee

ODT Certification Level One - Based on Work Experience

- Completion of 1,500 hours of work experience in 18 months
- Pass the required exam(s)
- Submission of Occupational Certificate – Work Experience Application with $450.00 fee

ODT Certification Level Two - Based on Credentials

- Successful completion of Overhead Door Technician - Level One certification as delivered by the Canadian Door Institute (CDI)
- Successful completion of Overhead Door Technician - Level Two course as delivered by CDI
- Pass the required exam(s)
- Submission of Occupational Certificate – Credentials Application with $150.00 fee

ODT Certification Level Two - Based on Work

For more information visit www.tradesecrets.alberta.ca

Experience

- Successful completion of Overhead Door Technician - Level One certification as delivered by the Canadian Door Institute (CDI)
- Completion of 1,500 hours of work experience in 18 months
- Pass the required exam(s)
- Submission of Occupational Certificate – Work Experience Application with $450.00 fee

or

- Completion of 3,000 hours of work experience in 36 months
- Pass the required exam(s)
- Submission of Occupational Certificate – Work Experience Application with $450.00 fee

ODT Certification Level Two - Based on Credentials - TRANSITION available to August 31, 2018

- Successful completion of Overhead Door Technician Level One and Level Two courses as delivered by the Canadian Door Institute (CDI)
- Completion of 2,000 hours of work experience in 24 months
- Pass the required exam(s)
- Submission of Occupational Certificate - Credentials Application with $150.00 fee